Please indicate if you OR your parent receives any of the following:

- |                              |          |
|------------------------------|----------|
| Supplemental Security Income | Yes / No |
| SNAP Benefits (Food Stamps)  | Yes / No |
| Free/Reduced Price Lunches   | Yes / No |
| TANF/Welfare Benefits        | Yes / No |
| WIC Benefits                 | Yes / No |

Are you OR one of your parents a dislocated worker? Yes / No

Except for the spouse of an active duty member of the Armed Forces, if a person quits work, generally he or she is not considered a dislocated worker even if, for example, the person is receiving unemployment benefits.

A person may be considered a dislocated worker if he or she:

- Is receiving unemployment benefits due to being laid off or losing a job and is unlikely to return to a previous occupation
  - Has been laid off or received a lay-off notice from a job
  - Was self-employed but is now unemployed due to economic conditions or natural disaster
  - Is the spouse of an active duty member of the Armed Forces and has experienced a loss of employment because of relocating due to permanent change in duty station
  - Is the spouse of an active duty member of the Armed Forces and is a displaced homemaker (as described below)
  - Is a displaced homemaker. A displaced homemaker is generally a person who previously provided unpaid services to the family (for example: a stay-at-home mom or dad), is no longer supported by the spouse, is unemployed or underemployed, and is having trouble finding or upgrading employment.

Please give a brief statement on how you and your family financially support yourselves:
